

C. Kleiner

2019 CATHOLIC SCHOOLS WEEK AT CBA

Catholic Schools
Learn. Serve. Lead. Succeed.

You may expect me to say how I'm glad I go to a Lasallian Catholic School because we get to go to religion class, go to Mass, or listen to spiritual talks. But I'm not going to say that. Don't get me wrong, those are all great things, but they're not the reason I'm grateful to go to a Catholic School; I can find all of those other things at my church.

The waves in the halls, the teachers caring beyond all reason. The way someone will bend down to help me pick up dropped papers or how they offer to throw my trash out. When new students start at CBA and by the end of the first month, I can't imagine school without them. The way people join together in prayer, in assistance, in love when their help is needed.

Teachers striving to help students prepare for the world, Teammates offering to give extra practice to someone, The trust, however small, we feel toward each other, The seniors pairing up with seventh graders to form friendships, The team dinners, The clubs and groups working for ethics and the environment. The service outings and class retreats. The mitten tree. The open classrooms after school. Every cheesy, silly thing the teachers and faculty do. The teambuilding exercises we hate. The smiles.

That's what makes going to a Lasallian Catholic School amazing.

"EXAMPLE makes a much greater impression on the MIND and HEART than words."

- Saint John Baptist de la Salle